

JANETTE MCCORMICK
ASSISTANT CHIEF CONSTABLE
CHESHIRE CONSTABULARY

Janette joined Cheshire Constabulary on August 2, 2010. She was previously a Chief Superintendent with Greater Manchester Police and has wide experience of operational policing and working with communities.

She joined Greater Manchester Police in 1989 having achieved a degree at Nottingham University, and started her police career in Salford and Manchester City Centre. Janette has been responsible for a number of changes including centralisation of communications, developing neighbourhood policing across Greater Manchester and establishing their road policing department.

During her time with GMP, Janette planned the policing of large scale events like the Commonwealth Games and Labour Party Conference, and was Commander at Manchester United, travelling home and abroad with the club.

Having policed areas of Manchester impacted by gangs and gun crime, Janette is a firm believer in the role of community advisory groups and individuals, and working with them to identify solutions and achieve them.
