

SUE SCOTT

DIRECTOR OF HUMAN RESOURCES

LINCOLNSHIRE POLICE

Sue Scott has been Director of Human Resources at Lincolnshire Police since January 2005. She is originally from Leeds and went to Hull University gaining a degree in Spanish. She continued to live in Hull for many years.

Sue worked in numerous personnel and Human Resources positions for Councils in the north of England before moving to Derby City Council in 1999 to be Head of HR and Diversity (workforce of 12,000). On leaving Derby in December 2004 the Council had just been inspected and assessed as 'excellent'.

Sue is a lifelong rugby supporter and also enjoys watching football and playing badminton.

Sue is a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Personnel and Development (FCIPD), a member of the Employment Tribunal service and is a qualified performance development coach and mediator.