Cottage.....for your holidays - (a gem!)

In the medieval market town of DURAS, DORDOGNE

A lovely Cottage in a semi-pedestrianised street in the town. Fully furnished and equipped - with wonderful traditional French furnishings. There is a roof terrace with table, parasol and loungers.

Cosy and warm in the winter, with wood burning stove and radiators. Sunny roof terrace in the summer. Pavement cafes in the town within a short stroll, world-renowned Vineyards to explore all around- shops and small supermarket - and larger supermarket on outskirts of DURAS with lots of local 'produce' In the streets a Farmers market every Monday

Large ancient Chateau just 200 yards away - open to the public/ wine outlets in the town- top quality wines to buy at very low prices....four restaurants in Duras one of which we consider to be the BEST we've ever been to. (Hotel des Ducs) – will you agree?

The department of the Dordogne is one of the most beautiful areas of France.....without doubt.

You may reserve your dates in the cottage now. Sleeps up to 4- two double bedrooms - rentals are £395 per week includes electricity usage and cleaning/fresh linen etc. 'only 'extra' is logs in Winter
